

Mail Order Neglect (Sweet Historical Mail Order Bride Romance Novel) (Montana Mail Order Brides Book 5)

A Shy Irish Girl When Addie McGilvray follows her best friend to Montana to become a mail order bride, she hopes her fiancé will be the first man to appreciate her intellect and love of reading. But when she lays eyes on winsome Emmett, she's sure there has been a mistake. How could a stunning man like him ever be happy with an awkward girl like her? A Handsome Miner Emmett Cartwright is used to getting attention for his brilliant smile and charming ways. But no woman has ever tempted him to trade adventure on a mining claim for a life as a married farmer until he learns of Addie. He secretly hopes that a plain girl will be happy to overlook his checkered past and troublesome temptations. But when Addie arrives, he is shocked to find that the lovely redhead is more than just a bookworm—she's the most talented, intelligent woman he's ever met! How could a wonderful girl like her put up with a wild past like his especially when trouble comes knocking on his door? Mail Order Neglect is a sweet historical romance novel of 77,252 words. It is clean and sweet, with complex and imperfect characters.
