They're two people who are destined to be together, even with the constant obstacles they find themselves facing. But, of course, misery loves company. The Sulivic Brothers are back and they're ready to retaliate for the loss of their brother, Gavin. They want war and they will do whatever it takes to seek revenge. Can Nina and Andrew get through this obstacle? Will love conquer the act of war? And most importantly, who is going to win this bloody war?
