

Two Years Before the Mast [with Biographical Introduction]

Two Years Before the Mast is the true story of Richard Henry Dana's voyage aboard the Pilgrim on a trip around Cape Horn during the years 1834 to 1836. Intended as an account of the life of a common sailor at sea as it really is, Two Years Before the Mast details a voyage from Boston to San Francisco to trade goods from the east for cow hides. Two Years Before the Mast is a classic depiction of maritime life in the 19th century. Included in this edition is the appendix, Twenty-Four Years After written and added by the author in 1869.
