

Mystic Memories

During a fourth-grade visit aboard a refurbished nineteenth century merchant brig in Dana Point, California, a ten-year-old boy vanishes. After a three-month fruitless investigation, the distraught parents seek the help of a private investigator known for her intuitive abilities to locate missing persons. P.I. Cara Edwards has an exemplary professional reputation while maintaining a low profile about her clairvoyant ability to avoid notoriety. While hesitant to accept the high-profile case with media attention that could ruin her credibility, she cannot refuse the desperate plea to find young Andrew. Her discovery of a time portal below deck of the brig leads her through a mystical curtain into a ship in 1833, where she meets a strikingly handsome sea captain who believes she is searching for her son and offers to help her. Captain Blake Masters has sailed the oceans of the world for nearly twenty years, never once looking back on his dark childhood memories. When Cara enters his life and opens the door to his forgotten past, can he trust her gift of second sight to lead him on an uncharted course toward a destiny of love and compassion?
