

Go Tell It on the Mountains (The Sugar Tree)

Sequel to Stones in the Road Years have gone by since the death of Noah, his special needs son, and Wiley Cantrell realizes its time to move on. He and his husband, Jackson Ledbetter, try to adopt little Tony Gorzola, a deaf boy with HIV who is emotionally traumatized. Difficulties quickly set in. Tony is a sweet boy but very damaged by abuse and neglect. And Tony's mother, in prison, is unwilling to relinquish her parental rights. No sooner do they get the go ahead to foster Tony when another child they had considered becomes available the daughter Jackson always wanted. With two children on their hands, life is complicated wonderfully so. But just as things begin to settle down, Tony, his immune system compromised, falls ill with pneumonia and Wiley and Jackson find their little family faced with crisis once again. A portion of the proceeds from this book are being donated to the Kentucky Youth Law Project (www.kylpinc.org), whose goal is to reduce homelessness and promote legal protections for LGBT youth in the state of Kentucky.
