

Not Quite Zen

This book is a contemporary sweet (clean) romantic suspense suitable for young adults and up. Story-line: Therapy dog trainer and hospice aide Harmony Hastings takes a much needed Zen vacation only to return to sheer chaos at the Silver Sunset Senior Community. Old Doc Barlow has disappeared, a mysterious but gorgeous young doctor has taken his place, and the patients keep going Code Red. Dr. Benjamin Dunford, Jr. found himself in the wrong place at the wrong time and is now in the witness protection plan in the state of Utah doctoring geriatric patients. He could use some peace and quiet, but he finds himself entangled with a zany hospice aide, a bunch of crazy dogs, and suspicious medical mishaps with his patients. Will Dr. Dunford be the cure to Harmony's anxieties or the cause? She might have to meditate on that one.
