A New Life in Mecca The Cuddly Bedtime Story Collection THE JOURNEY OF A LIFETIME WITH PROPHET MUHAMMAD THE PROPHET OF ALLAH by Anne Stephens aka Khadeijah Abdullah Darwish, Ahmed Darwish and NorKhadijah Ahmad Darwish Founders of Allah.com Muhammad.com and Mosque.com Indonesian Versions by Siti Nadriyah Mansyur Preface for parents and educators at the end Settling In It wasnt long before the young Muhammad had settled down very happily to his new lifestyle in the City of Mecca and found he had lots of cousins, an affectionate grandfather named Abd Al Muttalib, as well as many uncles and aunts. Amongst the children Muhammad loved most were Hamza and his young sister Safiah, the children of his grandfather, Abd Al Muttalib. Muhammad and Hamza were practically the same age, however, Muhammad was the elder, although technically speaking, Hamza was his uncle and Safiah his aunt. The Journey to Yathrib One day, Lady Aminah learned that a caravan would soon be leaving Mecca and passing through Yathrib (Medina) on its way north and she very much wanted to take her young son to visit the tomb of his father Abdullah. It was also a wonderful opportunity for Muhammad, who was now six, to meet the rest of his cousins and relatives who lived there. Barakah, Lady Aminahs maid, made the necessary preparations for the eleven day journey and they in the company of Abdul Muttalib set out on their long journey together with the young Muhammad. The Holy Family stayed in Yathrib for a month and the young Muhammad met more of his cousins, the children of Adiyy. He enjoyed being with them and went kite flying and sometimes they would take him to their large well where he learned to swim. It was a happy time but the month soon passed and the caravan destined for Mecca was ready to leave, so they made their farewells and departed. The Death of Lady Aminah As the caravan journeyed to Mecca, Lady Aminah was taken seriously ill and never recovered. The angels took away her soul at a village called Al Abwa and it is there that she lies buried.
