

Bride School: Gen (Book 1) (The Brides of Diamond Springs Ranch)

The first book in the series, THE BRIDES OF DIAMOND SPRINGS RANCH. A clean, P-G rated Western historical romance that sets off a string of happy endings with passionate, honorable ranchers and the spirited brides they choose from Mrs. Carnegies bride school. Set in 1870 Wyoming Territory. On the advice of her second dying husband, Genevieve Carnegie has returned to Wyoming to sort out her heart. She believes shell find complete satisfaction by wresting her ranch away from the man who ran her off the man she once loved. She plans to start a bride school, to prepare future wives of the Western Territories to have a hand in shaping the country. What she doesnt plan is to lose her heart, again, to Devlin Zollinger, her former brother-in-law. Besides, her society circles arent quite ready to allow men to marry their brothers widows. Devlin cant believe Gen is back, but it doesnt take long to realize she isnt interested in a reunion. She wouldnt be waging war against him if she knew what hed done on her behalf, but hes not about to tell her. However, if he cant find a way back onto the ranch to collect his things, shell discover all his secrets. Meanwhile, someone is trying to sabotage the bride ranch at every turn. And if Devlin cant catch the side-winder, the beautiful Genevieve Carnegie wont live long enough to marry a third husband hopefully, him.
