

The Power of Surrender (The Power of Surrender Series Book 1)

My name is Mick. I started writing six days a week back on July 31st, 2013 about my childhood, my recovery from the affects of being an Adult Child of Alcoholic Parents, its inherent co-dependent nature, my adult life prior to recovery, and my coming to understand the God of my understanding and the Power that is found in Surrendering my will and seeking to live my life in accordance with what I perceive to be Gods will for my life.

An integral part of my recovery is being willing to Surrender to my perception of what I falsely believed to who and what I should be to others, and instead accept that both Light and Power is found in being who and what I need to be for myself. For me, this Power is found by living inside out and following the direction provided in my heart and soul by listening and maintaining my conscious contact with the God of my understanding. Thus, each days writing is a reflection of prayer and meditation of seeking to understand Gods will for my life, and the Power to carry that out. Without planning or without intention or design, the natural evolution of my expressions of poetry, images, and these gifts in combine with inspired words my daily writings resulted in my first book, The Power of Surrender, featured below on this page. This book in addition to telling my story as described above, also describes in detail of my death on April 15th, 2007 and thirty-six hours of experiencing the White LIght of Death, the eternal love, peace, and serenity of the overwhelming feeling of Love that only God can provide and the miracle of an Angel and my gift of receiving eternal Gratitude for each day, a day at a time. It is my belief I am here today to share this message with you, this is Gods will for my life and His Light was left within me to perhaps shine for others if they so choose. This gift, for me, is found in Serenity, which I maintain most of the time.
